Notes

For the month August 2024, total revenue collection was KES 48.4 million compared to KES 83.8 million in the same period in 2023. This reflects a significant decrease in revenue collections of up to 42.3 %. The decline could be attributed to policy changes that transferred revenue collection to individual Departments leading to poor coordination. Health services contributed the highest proportion of the county's revenue collection (56%) followed by enclosed bus park fee (6.7%) and market fee. Single Business Permit, Cess and Agricultural and income from training from Mabanga FTC was also major revenue streams.
